

Speaker Introduction

Laura Scheidhauer knows the power of self-awareness, having experienced the profound impact it made on her own life, relationships, and work. This is why she is dedicated to helping others boost their self-awareness to discover their talents, connect to their passion, and align with their purpose. She is a leadership consultant and relational intelligence expert with over 30 years of experience equipping people to break free from the things that hold them back and unlock their hidden potential to be more, do more, and lead better.

As the founder of LHS Consulting, Laura specializes in scalable leadership transformation, focusing on sustainable culture change through multimodal learning. Her work spans corporate, faith-based, and educational sectors, working with clients ranging from large corporations and non-profits to ministries, marriages and individuals. Laura is a Certified 5 Voices for Teams Guide, a Certified Coach, and a DEI Specialist. She is a regular contributor to The Great Commission Gazette and has been featured in Voyage STL, Bold Journey, and Adult and Teen Challenge Connections Magazine.

Laura's outgoing, energetic, and people-centered style combines inspiring real-world stories with powerful insights that push you to not just ride the waves but steer the ship toward the future you want. She invites you on a transformative journey, focused on building a culture of champions where trust and collaboration are the norm.

Please join me in welcoming the compelling mission-driven Laura Scheidhauer!
